Tips - Early Bird

- Research your universities and courses. Plan ahead and use the summer productively.
- Offers can be given as soon as applications are in (they frequently are). Places will go before the final deadline.

The Personal Statement – basics

- Chance to ‘sell’ yourself
- 47 lines
- 4,000 characters including spaces
- 1 statement for all 5 choices, focus on course not location
- Must be relevant and purposeful

1 start well

A strong opening sentence will make it clear why you have applied to study a course. Avoid being generic, using cliches and random quotes.

make it easy to read

Don't write in one long paragraph. Clearly define experience, skills, qualifications and aspirations.

write it yourself

Make sure it reflects your personality. Don't copy or claim to do things you can't.

4 use examples eg

When talking about your strengths and qualities use examples to highlight your claims. Show your experiences.

5

let your personality in

Make it original and ensure it reflects who you are. At the same time DON'T pretend to be someone you're not.

6

demonstrate a real interest

A significant amount (around 2/3) of the statement should be focussed on your chosen subject.

? 7 answer the question

'Why should we give you a place on the course?' Don't just write and waffle about yourself. Show them you deserve a place.

8 value added skills & learning

What have you been doing that is relevant and beyond the requirements of your studies?

9 work experience

What have you learned from it? For some courses it is vital to have prior experience. Arrange it now.

10 write naturally in your own voice

Your personality and your opinions, not a bunch of cliches and Google searches.
Correct spelling and grammar.
