Dear Parent/Carer,

Let me first introduce myself, my name is Miss D Jones and I am currently the Acting Head of Inclusion at St Joseph's RC High School.

I know that this is a challenging time for all our young people, especially those, but not exclusively, pupils with Additional Learning Needs who will be transitioning to the school in September. I want to first reassure you that as a department we are here for you and your son/daughter.

The school has already created some excellent resources to support pupils on their transition, this includes a welcome brochure and an inclusion pack, videos from Mr James and Mr Humpage and a virtual tour of the school, all of which can be found on the school website. There is also a dedicated sjhstransition2020 instagram page with regular updates from Mr James.

As a school we know that some pupils may need additional support to ensure that their transition to St Joseph's is as successful as possible.

If you feel that your son/daughter needs additional support I would ask you to contact me directly via my school email to allow me to make contact with you and your son/daughter to discuss their needs individually. My email address is djones2@sjhs.newport.sch.uk

The department would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your support, patience and understanding during this time.

Your sincerely

Miss D Jones
Acting Head Inclusion
