John 20:1-9 The Empty Tomb

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. 2 So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they have put him!” So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. 4 Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. 5 He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. 6 Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, 7 as well as the cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus’ head. The cloth was still lying in its place, separate from the linen. 8 Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. 9 (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)

Theme of the day

All rise!

How confusing it must have been for the disciples when Mary Magdalene came back to them saying that Jesus' body had been moved from the tomb.

They must have wondered who had done such a thing and why.

But then, once they reached the tomb and saw the cloths lying on the ground, they finally realised what Jesus had been trying to teach them all along.

They understood that he had risen. As it says in today's psalm, "This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad."

He is risen.

Reflect Adlewyrchu

Let us give thanks to God for all that he has made. Let us rejoice that through the power of the resurrection, all things have been made new.

May this renewal inspire us to do what we can to bring about a change for the better in our lives and in our world.

As we celebrate Christ's resurrection today, let us praise him for his glory.

Christ is risen. Alleluia!

Continue to keep your brothers and sisters around the world in your prayers this Easter.

He is risen.
