Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Examinations, Summer 2024

I would like to provide you with some information and advice regarding your child's upcoming examinations.

Check the timetable carefully

You and your child should now have received their examination timetable. Please make sure that your child checks the date of each examination and whether each is in the morning or the afternoon.

Revision

Your child should be well into their revision now but however confident your child feels, there is lots of help on our school website.

For information on examinations: Years 10 & 11: <https://www.sjhs.org.uk/exams>

For revision support: Years 10 & 11: <https://www.sjhs.org.uk/revision>

For sixth form: <https://www.sjhs.org.uk/6thexams>

Qualifications Wales

Qualifications Wales publish some information each year about the examinations and you can find some useful information on their website. The main information is on their Exams and assessment 2023-24 webpage which contains links to support for you and your child.

Your child may be particularly interested in looking at: Learner Guide to Exams and Assessment 2023-24.

Support for you

If you have any questions about your child's examinations or revision, please let us know. Your child can speak to subject teachers, form tutor, or to any member of staff they trust.

Your child can also come to speak to me in school or you can email me on jmorgan@sjhs.newport.sch.uk.

As long as we know that help is needed, we will always listen and do whatever we can to support you and your child.

Yours sincerely

Mrs J Morgan
